Concept: Nordkonst is focused on the export of Nordic street culture in Russia with the aim of promoting cross-border cooperation, international friendships and mobility. Main focus is put on the support of young people and street art collectives that strive for international recognition. By focusing on young people and using street culture as a platform for dialogue we also actively working on solving societal issues, ensuring inclusivity, gender equality, non-conflictual ways of resolving violence and combatting bulling in all forms and arenas.

Publicity and cooperations

Nordkonst sets its priorities on establishing new cooperations in the region and is looking for partnerships in Denmark, Norway, the Baltic States and Eastern Europe. Apart of cooperating with art institutions and youth organisaions, Nordkonst also sets its focus on finding commercial partners and educational institutions to be able to drive practice based research that benefits different social groups.

In 2020 Nordkonst aims at increasing its media presence by more actively engaging in cooperation with media outlets both nationally and internationally.

Budget

At the moment Nordkonst operates with the support of Swedish Institute, Nordic Cultural Foundation and Council of the Nordic Ministers.
